

TITLE:

A Social platform for human mobility

ABSTRACT:

Human mobility has a major role in Europe`s formation and characterizes its past, present and future. We need social driven platforms to increase awareness of mobility status in local and global level. Aim at increasing awareness in terms of mobility incentives (studies, better life, politics, ... ) via social driven applications which will embed social networks data analysis as well as crowdourced information of evolving mobility issues