Networking is the biennial Conference on Networking of the IFIP Technical Committee on Communication Systems (TC6). Networking 2002 is the second conference in this series --the first event was held in Paris, May 2000-- and is sponsored by the IFIP working groups on Network and Internetwork Architectures (WG 6.2), Performance of Communication Systems (WG 6.3), and Wireless Communications (WG 6.8).

Networking 2002 is organized into three tracks:

- Networking Technologies, Services and Protocols
- Performance of Computer and Communication Networks
- Mobile and Wireless Communications Systems

Invited speakers

Imrich Chlamtac - "Managing Optical Networks in the Optical Domain"
The University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson TX 75083-0688, USA

Randy Katz - "The Post-PC Era: It's All About Services"
University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-1776, USA

Gerald Maguire - "Personal Computing and Communication"
Royal Institute of Technology (KTH), Sweden
